

Keider Montero 6/7/25 vs CHC

- Vs Left (79 PA)
 - .353/.436/.574/ .437 wOBA
 - 0.70 K/BB, 6.37 FIP
 - 4SF 40%, CH 21%, KC 19.7%, SL 16.6%, SI 2%
 - CH and KC are often left over the plate, 4SF typically upper 80% of zone
- Vs Right
 - .218/.284/.310/ .270 wOBa
 - 3.17 K/BB, 3.58 FIP
 - SI 37.6%, SL 31.5%, 4SF 19.9%, CH 6.1%, KC 4.7%
 - Sinker away gets a lot of called strikes, presumably due to slider low and away focus
 - Slider responsible for 55.8% of swinging strikes, overall SwStr% of 17.6
- Nuggets
 - 0-0 to righties:
 - SI 47.4%, 4SF 27.4%, SL 21.1% (75-25 FB vs OFF)
 - Fills the zone, but only 5 hits in 95 pitches (all singles, all FB variant)
 - 0-0 to lefties:
 - 4SF 42.5%, KC 27.5%, SL 23.8% (50-50 FB vs OFF)
 - 2-strike to righties:
 - 39% slider, but few swinging strikes
 - 2-strike to lefties:
 - 4SF 32.5%, CH 25.3% (not typically in strike zone), 20.5% KC (53-47 in zone vs out) SL 16.9% (leans backfoot vs back door)

What I'm watching for:

- Cubs righties to be aggressive on the first pitch, though it probably won't result in many hits
 - Expecting the 75-25 fastball vs offspeed splits as well
- Cubs lefties to carry the load offensively
 - A hung offspeed pitch or 2 to get punished
- Overall 2-strike whiff rate suggests few swinging strikeouts
